encouraging. The Democrats are rallying to the support of Mr. P. T. Glass, and are determined to elect him. The presence of Emerson Etheridge as his opponent is sufficient to strengthen them in their resolution to maintain the party majority and elect the man who is the choice of the convention. Even the Democrats of Dyer, who fought so long and so gallantly for Latts, are working to secure the election of Mr. Glass. His long and valuable services in the ranks and as a journalist entitles him to the hearty support thus conceded, and the necessity for maintaining the ascendancy of party Old-Line Whiggism, it is out of the question and absurd. It is a snare spread to catch the unwary. The history of the politics of the last twenty years is fall of such attempts, and their ignominious failure is a warning to those who incline even a hair's breadth to those who incline even a hair's breadth from the line of those principles by which the South has profited since 1865, and by which we have achieved all our victories over the enemy of our peace and prosperity. THE Rev. Dr. John B. McFerrin, by special request, preached last Sunday at the McKendree church, Nashville, a sermon devoted to a review of the first 100 years of the Methodist Church, part of which we publish on the second page. The history which it traces is one of the most remarkable chapters in the history of the English-speaking people. It illustrates the force of an accepted truth, the beauty of simplicity in character, the strength of the tenacity that has laid hold on what it believes is rightallie'd to heartiness growing out of happy convictions. John Wesley's was of Christ as He Himself had delivered them, and equipping plain, and sometimes lums of England, and to the pioneers the distant wildernesses of America. Cuba of to-night denies authoritatively the rumors current that a loan is being negotiated for the Cuban Treasury, notwithstanding the statements published to the contrary by the opposition papers, which publications, the Correspondencia de Cuban States, were made solely for selfish purposes. The same paper says it is probable that Cuban cigars will be allowed to enter the United States free of duty. The negotiations for a commercial treaty with the United States have considerably advanced, and it is almost certain that a treaty will be concluded.

In some towns of the State outlook for the Democrats in the county the Republicans had congratulatory meetings.

The bulletin boards at the different newspaper offices were surrounded late into the night by large crowds of people, who waited patiently for hours to hear the newspaper offices.

The deficition of the democrats in the county is not encouraging. The election passed off quietly in this county. As far as heard from, the Fusion ticket has gained, while the Democrats lost. At the beadquarters of the National Democratic Committee at midnight nothing is conceded, and West Virginia is claimed by $600, which is estimated in Wheeling. The Democrats in private concede Ohio to the Republicans by about 10,000 majority. At midnight Ohio was claimed by the National Republican Committee by from 17,00 to 20,000, and the magic lantern screen in front bore the words "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow." The Republicans here felt such confidence in the result in Ohio that Chickering Hall bad been secured for tonight and a mass-meeting held.
